Nonprofit Attorney and Author

Sandra Pfau Englund, Esq. has provided legal counsel to nonprofit groups for over 20 years. Sandy is founder of RENOSI, Inc., a company that helps nonprofit groups manage the growing federal and state filing requirements necessary to obtain, and maintain, tax-exempt status.

She is the industry thought leader on issues related to tax-exempt status and compliance, and financial and fundraising transparency. Englund began her career with a Washington, D.C.-based law firm where she represented tax-exempt status, grants and expenditure responsibility, and private foundation rules and regulations.

Englund is a sought-after subject matter expert and has been quoted by NBC's TODAY show and in Forbes and The Wall Street Journal, among others. She is published and speaks throughout the country on issues relating to nonprofit, tax-exempt organizations.

She earned her law degree and a Master's in Public Administration from George Washington University. She also holds a bachelor's degree magna cum laude from Eastern Michigan University, from which she was named Outstanding Young Alumnae.
